Birdwatching bingo

Four different cards. No bird names needed. A window watch counts.

Mark an action only when you see it. The middle is free. Three in a line makes bingo.
Use the same bird for more than one action if you observe each action.

CARD A

Name _____ Date _____

○ A bird lands on a branch	○ A bird turns its head	○ Two birds sit near each other
○ A bird takes off from its perch	LOOK CLOSELY Free space	○ A bird cleans its feathers
○ A bird hops along the ground	○ A bird holds something in its beak	○ A bird pecks at a surface

Our watching spot: _____

One thing we noticed: _____

CARD B

Name _____ Date _____

○ A bird stretches one wing	○ A bird takes off from its perch	○ A bird turns its head
○ A bird walks along the ground	LOOK CLOSELY Free space	○ A bird opens its beak
○ A bird lands on a branch	○ A bird moves into leafy cover	○ A bird cleans its feathers

Our watching spot: _____

One thing we noticed: _____

A quiet watch is still a good watch. Leave unchecked boxes for another day.

Keep your distance. Stay away from nests. Do not chase, feed or call birds for this game.
Children should watch with an adult. Follow the rules of your watching spot.

Free to print for personal or classroom use. Please do not resell the PDF.

Birdwatching bingo

Four different cards. No bird names needed. A window watch counts.

Mark an action only when you see it. The middle is free. Three in a line makes bingo.
Use the same bird for more than one action if you observe each action.

CARD C

Name _____ Date _____

○ A bird holds something in its beak	○ A bird pecks at a surface	○ A bird lands on a branch
○ Two birds sit near each other	LOOK CLOSELY Free space	○ A bird stretches one wing
○ A bird turns its head	○ A bird takes off from its perch	○ A bird moves into leafy cover

Our watching spot: _____

One thing we noticed: _____

CARD D

Name _____ Date _____

○ A bird cleans its feathers	○ A bird walks along the ground	○ A bird opens its beak
○ A bird moves into leafy cover	LOOK CLOSELY Free space	○ A bird hops along the ground
○ Two birds sit near each other	○ A bird pecks at a surface	○ A bird stretches one wing

Our watching spot: _____

One thing we noticed: _____

A quiet watch is still a good watch. Leave unchecked boxes for another day.

Keep your distance. Stay away from nests. Do not chase, feed or call birds for this game.
Children should watch with an adult. Follow the rules of your watching spot.

Free to print for personal or classroom use. Please do not resell the PDF.